ELKHART, IND.

ELKHART, INDIANA.

The City of Elkhart, with its population of 12,000 is the most important manufacturing city of its size in Indiana. It is situated on the Elkhart and St. Joseph Rivers and the L. S. & M. S. and C. W. & M. Rys., 10 miles n e of Goshen Court House. Elkhart is lighted by gas and electric light, has one of the best water works systems in the State, has well graded and cleanly kept streets. The best Opera House in Northern Indiana, two first-class Hotels and several minor ones, substantial business blocks, palatial residences and neatly kept cottages and grounds, has a good fire department and ample police protection, has paved streets and miles of cement walks. It has also two fine parks and miles of beautiful drives. It has one of the finest bands of music in the west and an excellent orchestra, three banks, one cemetery, graded and high school. Its newspapers are the Daily Truth and Daily Evening Review. The Mennonite Publishing Co. issue from their establishment five religious papers, and C. G. Conn edits the Monthly Truth. There is no point in the State that can excel Elkhart in the inducements it can offer to manufacturers—abundant water power, excellent railroad facilities and low rate of taxation.

The more important manufacturing interests of Elkhart are, the Lake Shore Shops, J. R. Beardsley Paper Mill, Elkhart Roller Mills, Elkhart Milling Co., Sage Bros. Flour Mill, Eagle Knitting Co., C. G. Conn's Band Instrument Works, Combination Board Mill, Elkhart Carriage and Harness Mfg. Co., Indiana Buggy Co., Elkhart Paper Co., Elkhart Knitting Co., Elkhart Tissue Paper Co., Excelsior Starch Co., Globe Tissue Paper Co., Muzzy Starch Co., The Elkhart Iron Works, Paper Box Factory, Kimbark Buggy Works, Chester & Pears Cigar Factory, Canis Cigar Factory, Garden City Tablet Co., Elkhart Tablet Co.
